The Celebrant introduces the Confession

BCP, p. 352

... Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

The people kneel.

Most merciful God,

we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.

We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.

For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us;

that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Celebrant pronounces absolution.

The people stand.

S-277 Glory to God

BCP, p. 356

Opening Prayer

Almighty and everlasting God, you have given to us your servants grace, by the confession of a true faith, to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity, and in the power of your divine Majesty to worship the Unity: Keep us steadfast in this faith and worship, and bring us at last to see you in your one and eternal glory, O Father; who with the Son and the Holy Spirit live and reign, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Old Testament Lesson Exodus 3:1-6

Now Moses was keeping the flock of his father-in-law, Jethro, the priest of Midian; and he led his flock to the west side of the wilderness, and came to Horeb, the mountain of God. And the angel of the LORD appeared to him in a flame of fire out of the midst of a bush; and he looked, and lo, the bush was burning, yet it was not consumed. And Moses said, "I will turn aside and see this great sight, why the bush is not burnt." When the LORD saw that he turned aside to see, God called to him out of the bush, "Moses, Moses!" And he said, "Here am I." Then he said, "Do not come near; put off your shoes from your feet, for the place on which you are standing is holy ground." And he said, "I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob." And Moses hid his face, for he was afraid to look at God.

Canticle Beneductus es

Blessed art thou, O Lord God of our fathers;
praised and exalted above all for ever.

Blessed art thou for the Name of thy Majesty;
praised and exalted above all for ever.

Blessed art thou in the temple of thy holiness;
praised and exalted above all for ever.

Blessed art thou that beholdest the depths, and dwellest between the Cherubim;
praised and exalted above all for ever.

Blessed art thou on the glorious throne of thy kingdom;
praised and exalted above all for ever.

Blessed art thou in the firmament of heaven;
praised and exalted above all for ever.

Epistle Romans 8:12-17

So then, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh—for if you live according to the flesh you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body you will live. For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the spirit of sonship. When we cry, "Abba! Father!" it is the Spirit himself bearing witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with him in order that we may also be glorified with him.

Sequence

St Flavian / H 142

1. Most ancient of all mysteries,
before thy throne we lie;
have mercy now, most merciful,
most holy Trinity.

2. When heaven and earth were yet unmade,
when time was yet unknown,
thou in thy bliss and Majesty
didst live and love alone.

3. Thou wast not born; there was no fount
from which thy being flowed;
there is no end which thou canst reach:
but thou art simply God.

4. How wonderful creation is,
the work which thou didst bless!
And O what then must thou belike,
eternal Loveliness!

5. Most ancient of all Mysteries,
Low at thy throne we lie;
have mercy now, most merciful,
Most holy Trinity.

Holy Gospel John 3:1-16

Now there was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews. This man came to Jesus by night and said to him, "Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher come from God; for no one can do these signs that you do, unless God is with him." Jesus answered him, "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born anew, he cannot see the kingdom of God." Nicodemus said to him, "How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter a second time into his mother's womb and be born?" Jesus answered, "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Do not marvel that I said to you, 'You must be born anew.' The wind blows where it wills, and you hear the sound of it, but you do not know whence it comes or whither it goes; so it is with every one who is born of the Spirit." Nicodemus said to him, "How can this be?" Jesus answered him, "Are you a teacher of Israel, and yet you do not understand this? Truly, truly, I say to you, we speak of what we know, and bear witness to what we have seen; but you do not receive our testimony. If I have told you earthly things and you do not believe, how can you believe if I tell you heavenly things? No one has ascended into heaven but he who descended from heaven, the Son of man. And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life." For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life.

Sermon

Responsory

Based on the Creed of St Athanasius, BCP, p. 864

This is the catholic faith:

We worship one God in Trinity and Trinity in Unity, not confusing the Persons, nor dividing the Substance.

People

There is one Person of the Father, another of the Son, and another of the Holy Spirit.

The Godhead of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit is all One, equal in glory, equal in Majesty.

As the Father is, so is the Son, and so is the Holy Spirit.

The Father uncreated, the Son uncreated, and the Holy Spirit uncreated.

The Father eternal, the Son eternal, and the Holy Spirit eternal.

The Father Almighty, the Son Almighty, and the Holy Spirit Almighty.

But there are not three Almighties, but one Almighty.

The Father God, the Son God, and the Holy Spirit God.

But there are not three Gods, but one God.

The Father Lord, the Son Lord, and the Holy Spirit Lord.

But there are not three Lords, but one Lord.

The Father is from nothing, not made, not created nor begotten.

The Son is solely from the Father, not made, not created, but begotten.

The Holy Spirit is from the Father and the Son, not made, not created or begotten, but proceeding.

There is nothing before or after, nothing greater or less in this Trinity.

But all three Persons are co-eternal with each other and together co-equal.

So in all things, both Trinity in Unity and Unity in Trinity must be worshipped. This is the catholic faith.

Prayers of the People

Heavenly Father, you have promised through your Son Jesus Christ, to hear the prayers of those who ask in faith and in the power of the Holy Spirit.

Lord of your people: Strengthen your Church in all the world, renew the life of this parish, bless George our Bishop and Douglas and David, priests of this parish, and build us up in faith and love. Lord in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Lord of creation: Look with favor on the world you have made, guide the nations in the ways of justice and peace, and bless our President, our Governors, and all in authority. Lord, in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Lord of our relationships: Comfort and sustain the communities in which we live and work, help us to love our neighbors as ourselves. Bless ___ and all who celebrate birthdays this week, ___ who celebrate wedding anniversaries, and ___ for whose household we pray. Lord, in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Lord of all healing: Relieve and protect all who are sick or suffering, be with those who have any particular need, and especially _____. Deliver all who know danger, violence or oppression. Lord, in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Lord of eternity: Bind us together by your Holy Spirit, in communion with [____ and] all who have died in the peace of Christ, that we may entrust ourselves, one another, and our whole life to you, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, and come with the Blessed Virgin Mary, James our Patron, and all your saints to the joys of your eternal kingdom.

Lord, in your mercy,
People Hear our prayer.

A Collect for Memorial Day.

O Judge of the nations, we remember before you with grateful hearts the men and women of our country who in the day of decision ventured much for the liberties we now enjoy. Grant that we may not rest until all the people of this land share the benefits of true freedom. This we ask in the Name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then is sung

717 Our fathers' God, to thee,
Author of liberty, To thee we sing;
Long may our land be bright With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by thy might, Great God, our King.

HOLY COMMUNION. Baptized Christians may receive the Blessed Sacrament. The Sacred Host will be placed upon your tongue or in the palm of your hand after which the Chalice is offered. Should you wish to receive by intinction, leave the Host on your palm. The Chalice Bearer will dip It in the consecrated Wine and place It on your tongue. If you are not receiving the Sacrament, please cross your arms as the Priest approaches so that a blessing may be said.

IF AGE OR INFIRMITY makes it difficult for you to come to the altar rail, please indicate to the Ushers that you would like help to the Communion rail, or that you would prefer Holy Communion brought to you in your pew.

PLEASE ENSURE THAT CELLPHONES are turned off during Mass. If God is going to speak to you at Mass, he will use other means!

BAPTISMS. For more information and the necessary paperwork, please email the Parish Office.

A STAFFED NURSERY is available in the Parish Center. An Usher will be pleased to give you directions.

LADIES, to preserve our linens, please blot your lipstick prior to receiving from the Chalice.
